

ACS Friends

Here are a couple of recommendations for films this summer ... They couldn't be more different ... Plus one is already out of the theaters but you can find it without problem. The are:

Prometheus

If you think that this is a crazy recommendation, check this remarkable film review which goes into the heart concerns of ACS (a review, that I must confess, was recommend by one of you members, just yesterday):

The Way

ACS is not in the business of promoting film business ... But I thought these two could be worth watching ...
