

Dear ACS members,

We would like to announce that Anat Geva is stepping down as our list-server master, after 7+ years of continued service.

Anat has been an essential force behind ACS members' ability to share information, communicate, and thus build a cohesive community. In fact, Anat was who started the list-server with the support of her Texas A&M University in the first place. I have had the privilege to work with Anat all these years and I can tell you how serious and committed she was at this demanding job. Not only had she to monitor the exchanges, requests, membership recruitment, technical issues, and more but also that the postings/conversations were up to the professional and academic standards we expect at the ACS Forum. During Anat's tenure, the list-server went from about 40 to 330+ members. Thankfully, Anat will not stop serving ACS as she has decided to work on our publications committee.

The job of ACS list-server master will now be in the hands of Rebecca Krinke. Rebecca has been an ACS Executive Committee member since 2010 and co-chaired our 2nd Symposium in St. John's, Minnesota.

Thank you Anat for your many years of generous and excellent service to ACS!
