

International Symposium on Urbanism, Spirituality & Well Being

Exploring the Past and Present | Envisioning the Future

June 6-9, 2013

Glastonbury Abbey, Hingham, MA & Harvard University Divinity School, Cambridge, MA

TRAVEL INFORMATION

Below are ground transportation options for travel from Logan Airport or points in Boston to Glastonbury Abbey in Hingham, MA. The abbey is about one hour drive time from Boston. Although you will be responsible for arranging your own travel to the abbey, you can arrange to be picked up by the symposium organizers from the Hingham water taxi terminal or Cohasset train terminal by submitting this form. The organizers will also provide van transportation to and from Cambridge on Saturday.

For information regarding travel to and from Logan Airport see the Massport site at <http://www.massport.com/loganairport/To%20and%20From%20Logan/ToandFromLogan.aspx>
For overall public transportation information in the Boston area see <http://www.mbta.com/>

From Logan Airport

From Logan Airport to South Station (and train connections) take Silver Line 1. The trackless trolleys/buses leave each terminal every 20 minutes and it takes 20 minutes between the airport and South Station.

Commuter Rail

At South Station you can take the South Shore Commuter Train, Greenbush Line, to Cohasset, the town next to Hingham and 10 minutes from the abbey. The trains do not run on weekends.

Water Taxi

Water Taxi connections are available between Rowes Wharf in Boston and Hewitt Cove, Hingham. For water taxi connections between Logan and Rowe's Wharf see http://www.roweswharfwatertransport.com/RWWT_2010/FAQ.html Water taxis do not run on weekends.

Subway

There are no direct subway connections to Hingham. The closest station is Quincy Center on the Red Line. Taxis are available there.

Local Hingham Taxis

Coastal Taxi 781 749 3450
All Taxi & Livery 781 749 8294

We will have cars or vans available to pick attendees up at the Hewitt Cove water taxi terminal in Hingham or the train station in Cohasset, if it is before 8 pm. (If after you can take a taxi.) On Sunday we will shuttle attendees to the Quincy Center subway station.

Please provide your travel information and request pick up.
