

5 December 2007

Dear ACS Members,

Last week we invited you to become familiar with the website for the Forum for Architecture, Culture and Spirituality. We hope that you have had a chance to do so.

We would like to invite you to submit pertinent information for the News and Resources pages, which can be viewed at <http://faculty.arch.utah.edu/acs/>. This may include your own teaching, research or practice. Submissions should include a sentence long statement with an URL link (or pdf file).

All submissions should be sent to Julio Bermudez at bermudez@arch.utah.edu

The News page includes summaries of conferences, symposia and other events and activities that are of interest to the ACS members.

The Resources page contains information regarding current educational, research and practice activities related to the ACS mission. It also includes a bibliography (references) for the use of our members.

Both will be built over time through member input.

Thank you again for your input and participation. If you would like to discuss any of the above, please post your opinion or questions on the Discussion Board.

We look forward to the shared resources, discussions and scholarly activities that the Forum for Architecture, Culture and Spirituality promises to provide.

The ACS Organizing Committee:

Julio Bermudez
Anat Geva

The Mission of the Forum for Architecture, Culture and Spirituality is to support the development and dissemination of architectural and interdisciplinary scholarship, research, practice, and education on the cultural significance, experience and meaning of the built environment.
