

Dear ACS members

An important milestone has been crossed and we need to celebrate!

The ACS forum has now passed the 200 membership mark. It has taken 4.5 years to go from our originally 35 members to today, but we have done it.

Isn't it comforting to know that, 'out there', there are 202 of us that are committed to profess the importance of studying, practicing, and/or teaching the relationship between architecture and spirituality in the context of culture? That's why we founded this group in the first place. So we could have a community where we could discuss, share, and advance these issues.

To know our members' names is not as important as to realize that we have been able to share this remarkable passion despite our different nationalities, faiths, languages, disciplines, customs, and ideologies.

To that, we salute!
