

Dear ACS members

Three events that maybe of your interest:

In New York City (next week)

"SPACE, THE SACRED, AND THE IMAGINATION"

Tuesday, February 21, 6:30 PM
Cornell University's New York City Center
50 West 17th Street, 2nd Floor
New York City

The Yale School of Architecture will jointly sponsor a book event with Cornell College of Architecture, Art, and Planning on the theme of two recent books which address contemporary architecture and religious thought: The Religious Imagination in Modern and Contemporary Architecture, co-edited by Renata Hejduk and James Williamson (Routledge, 2011) and Constructing the Ineffable: Contemporary Sacred Architecture edited by Karla Britton (Yale, 2010). This event will highlight the contribution of architects, historians, and theorists actively engaged in contemporary concerns of the sacred and the built environment.

The event is free and open to the public.

At Yale University (22-24 March, 2012)

"The Trials of Desire and the Possibility of Faith"

a conference on the mutual implication of desire, faith, & the darkness of God
This gathering will reflect upon contemporary belief and practice in light of a suggestion that emerges from the expansive oeuvre of Denys Turner: that the possibility of faith begins as a question of desire.

For more info, visit: <https://sites.google.com/site/trialsofdesire/>

In Los Angeles (19 to 20 October 2012)

"Culture, Mind, and Brain: Emerging Concepts, Methods, Applications"

Highlights emerging concepts, methods, and applications in the study of culture, mind, brain, with attention to cutting-edge research, the context in which methods are used, and the collaborations that advance interdisciplinary training.

Organized by: The Foundation for Psychocultural Research

For more: <http://www.thefpr.org/conference2012/index.php>

Julio Bermudez, Ph.D.
Associate Professor

The Catholic University of America
School of Architecture and Planning
Crough Center of Architectural Studies
620 Michigan Ave NE
Washington, DC 20064

(202) 319-5755 (phone)

bermudez@cua.edu (email)

<http://faculty.cua.edu/bermudez> (web)

"leap and the net will appear"